

LARKIN IDEA FEBRUARY 1929

ON TO WASHINGTON

Where You Place a Larkin Book You Open Your Own Larkin Store

THE Larkin Catalog is where your customers shop. Thus each and every Larkin Book you profitably place among your friends becomes your own Larkin Store, bringing you its share of business.

If you are planning to win in the great "On-to-Washington" contest you will be eager to open up many of these little neighborhood Larkin stores in the form of carefully distributed Larkin Catalogs. And you will want to do so at the earliest possible moment!

Remember, Larkin Co is always glad to supply any Secretary as many catalogs as she can wisely and profitably use. Ask us for them on your next order blank.

and each Club member should have her own Larkin Catalog

Washington Monument, Washington, D. C.
A giant memorial shaft erected in memory of the father of our country. The Washington Monument is 555 feet, 5½ inches high—the highest work of masonry in the world. It was begun in 1848; completed in 1885.

The Larkin Idea

Great Enthusiasm Greets News of "On-to-Washington" Contest

What a sensation the news of the "Onto-Washington" Contest has created among Larkin Secretaries everywhere! On every hand word reaches us of a greater interest than ever in the travel trip contest. Secretaries who have won the trip to Buffalo on frequent occasions eagerly greet the opportunity to compete for the great vacation trip to Washington. Secretaries who have never won before are equally stout in their declaration that they will win the trip to Washington as their first Larkin travel trip.

America's Greatest Center of Interest

It is reported that just after the war when the ban on travel was lifted, one famous interviewer said to another "Where are you going?" "I am to sail tomorrow for a trip around the world. And you?" "I am going down to Washington to watch the world go by," was the quick response.

What little conversation could be more significant of the fact that Washington is the central point of interest, not only to all good Americans but to the whole wide world?

What more wonderful than three days next August at the nation's capital as the guests of Larkin Co... the proud winners in a great nation-wide contest. What greater thrill than to join the throngs at Washington, who in the words of the famous journalist met there "to watch the world go by." And how natural that the world should gather at Washington considering the supreme importance of the nation's capital, not only in the affairs of our own country but of all the world.

What February Brings to Mind

February has given us our two great presidents, Washington and Lincoln. On February 12 we do honor to the saviour of our country and on February 22 to the father of our country. And while throughout all the United States here and there statues and memorials are erected to these great leaders of the nation, it is at Washington, D. C. that there have risen the two great memorials which every true American some day hopes and plans to visit. It was in 1848 that Congress planned the great memorial shaft known as the Washington Monument. But it was not until 1885 that this magnificent memorial, rising higher than any masonry in the world, was finally completed. Architecurally, this great shaft rising over 555 feet is regarded as a crowning finish to the grand public buildings of the capital. Of it the Senate Park Commission, composed of artists says "Taken by itself the Washington Monument stands not only as one of the most stupendous works of man but also as one of the most beautiful of human creations. Indeed it is at once so great and so simple that it seems to be almost a work of nature."

The Side Trip to Mount Vernon

One of the most memorable features of the whole trip next August, a feature which Larkin Secretaries will talk about for years to come, will be the trip to Mount Vernon, 16 miles south of Washington on the Virginia shore of the Potomac, where our guests will have the great privilege and joy of visiting the Washington mansion. Here is the ancestral home of the Washington family. The house was built in 1743 by Lawrence, half brother of George Washington. At the death of Lawrence and of his only daughter, George Washington inherited the estate and came here to live soon after his marriage in 1759. From Mt. Vernon he was called to take command of the revolutionary forces and after the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown he returned to Mt. Vernon. Again from this peaceable country estate he was called to be the first president of the United States. And to Mt. Vernon he retired after his terms as president, living here in dignified retirement as a private citizen until his death in 1799.

Patriotic associations have restored and preserved the Mt. Vernon estates that our visitors will see it, in all probability, almost precisely as it looked in the days when the father of our country and devoted wife, Martha Washington, made it their home.

Our guests while in Mt. Vernon will also have the interesting experience of pausing at Old Christ Church which Washington attended while at Mt. Vernon and there actually sitting in the pew where George Washington sat.

The Lincoln Memorial

The tribute of our guests to George Washington will not exceed that which they will have the opportunity to pay to the great emancipator Abraham Lincoln. It is safe to say that for many, the most inspiring moment of the entire trip will be the visit to the wonderful new Lincoln Memorial. It was May 30, 1922 that the completed memorial of Abraham Lincoln was presented to the president of the United States. At that time William Howard Taft, Chief Justice of the United States, and himself a former president, spoke as follows "The American people have waited fifty-seven years for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln. His life and character in the calmer, juster vista of half a century inspire a higher conception of what is suitable to commemorate him."

And then Mr. Taft in turning over the memorial to the president of the United States concluded as follows "Here is a shrine at which all can worship. Here an altar upon which the sacrifice was made in the cause of liberty. Here a sacred religious refuge in which those who love country and love God can find inspiration and repose. Mr. President, in the name of the Commission, I have the honor to deliver this Lincoln Memorial into your keeping."

Many Other Happy Experiences

As the readers of The Larkin Idea study the front cover of our February issue, where is reproduced the sculptor French's immortal figure of Lincoln and as they view the picture of the Memorial on page 7 of this issue, they will realize that time will not dim their memory of the visit to the great Lincoln Memorial. There will be many other reminders of Lincoln during the three days in Washington. The sightseers will pass the house where Lincoln died, they will stand in the president's room at the national capitol, the room where Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation and at the Smithsonian Institute they will see many, many souvenirs of the days when Lincoln was president.

Thus the trip to Washington will include that large experience which will enable our visitors to take back home a far deeper appreciation and far keener understanding of that great man, George Washington, who was indeed the father of his country and of the equally great one Abraham Lincoln, who less than seventy-five years later became a saviour of our country. It would be almost impossible in a single issue of The Larkin Idea for us to commence to cover the good times of the entire trip.

Planning to Bring a Guest

How natural with such a memorable trip ahead that many Secretaries are already working for the double pleasure of winning the trip themselves and taking a guest to Washington. The rules of the 1929 contest, like those of previous contests provide the privilege of buying an extra trip for only $150 in Larkin Coupons, no matter where you may live.

When one considers that this includes all transportation charges as well as a three-day stay in the magnificent Hotel Mayflower in Washington and all the sight-seeing trips in and around Washington, including Mt. Vernon and lovely Rock Creek Park, it is almost too good to be true.

In the next issue of The Larkin Idea we shall give you some idea of the pleasant entertainment at the Hotel Mayflower and the good comradeship that awaits every one on this trip.

Major Secretaries Enjoy a Little Journey to Buffalo

acquainting themselves with all the new wonderful Premiums for 1929, they returned home full of pep and enthusiasm for the coming year.

The party had their picture taken in front of the Administration Building prior to leaving for home. In the group left to right are: Mrs. Margaret Patton, Mrs. Conrad Walters, Mrs. Eliz. Richardson, Mrs. Michael Walters, Mrs. Lillian Charnatski, Mrs. C. D. Switzer, Mrs. Ralph Edwards, Mrs. Forrest Mayo, Mrs. Walter Dressel, Mrs. Jos. Stocker, Mrs. Geo. Ellsworth.

Trips to Buffalo have been quite the thing this fall. On several occasions Mrs. De Harde, Major Secretary of Erie, Pa. has brought large parties to Buffalo who have enjoyed this closer contact with Larkin Co. Other groups have visited us from Jamestown, N. Y., Oil City, Pa. and other points. It has been a pleasure to Larkin Co to play host in Buffalo to these splendid groups of Secretaries and their friends.

RECENTLY a happy party of Major Secretaries led by Mrs. Margaret Patton boarded the bus at Wilkes Barre and took a delightful all-day drive, with Larkin Co and Buffalo as their destination. This happy group, responsible for Larkin sales in Luzerne County, recently put over a very successful demonstration in Wilkes Barre, which was attended by large crowds both in the afternoon and evening. Since then they had been looking forward to their visit to Buffalo, which proved a real help and inspiration to them.

After seeing all the new Premiums and

Mrs. Patton and a group of Major Secretaries of Luzerne County, Pa.

Praiseworthy Ambition Easily Realized

Mrs. Ida Sutfin, Dundee, N. Y.

"T like my Larkin Pantry because it is ■a big factor in helping me to realize my ideals and ambitions.

"I have always wanted a home that was nicely furnished with all the necessities and some of the luxuries of life and where the table was set with the best of food, not in the sense of price but in the sense of quality.

"My Pantry has helped me realize this by increasing my rewards and thus furnishing my home and placing on our table the highest quality of foods obtainable.

"My greatest ambition is about to be realized—a newly built home and all that implies. It would not have been possible yet for a number of years without my Pantry.

"In the past few months I have had three new chairs, spinet desk, lamp, bed, mirror, table, set of silver and many dishes and when we move into this new home, I plan to have new rugs for the floors, more chairs and all the paint and paper for the house from Larkin and all this through my Pantry as rewards.

"My acquaintances have become fast friends through my Pantry and my days are filled with the fun of Larkin. "What more could you ask of any friend?"

"Inspired by Letters from Other Secretaries"

Mrs. D. Rothermel, Kutztown, Pa.

I have read almost all the letters published in The Larkin Idea from time to time, written by Larkin Secretaries and they have inspired me to write one myself.

I took orders for Larkin Co when I was but a little girl. One of the Premiums my mother received was a beautiful dinner set. When I started housekeeping my mother gave that set to me. It surely was a help because I needed so many things for the home. When I married I decided to start a Club to earn those things that everybody likes to have but cannot find a way to get. I have my third Club now and hope to have many more. My home is almost entirely furnished with things from Larkin Co.

My mother ran Larkin Clubs for twelve years. After that time she joined a Club-of-16. My mother and I have both experienced that Larkin Co offers more value for the amount of money one spends than any other place I know.

Vol. XXIV February 1929 No. 12

Once again this February issue is filled with the "On-to-Washington" Contest.

As we write of the nation's capital during this month when we celebrate Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, our hearts are stirred with patriotism. As we think of the many Secretaries that are set on seeing these inspiring scenes at Washington, we know that your heart, too, will be stirred by the thought of it.

Aside from the great contest itself a great deal of interest has been manifested in the little inner monthly contests. A goodly number of Secretaries were engaged in the Boraxine Selling Contest which was Monthly Sales Contest No. 1 in January.

And now comes the announcement of Monthly Sales Contest No. 2—Witch Hazel Cream. The purpose of these little contests is to give the Secretaries something novel and new on which to concentrate each month in visiting friends and neighbors. Usually a sale of a box of Boraxine or a jar of Witch Hazel Cream is the entering wedge to many other sales.

The Secretary who sells twenty or thirty jars of Witch Hazel Cream to twenty or thirty new customers may not win a prize in the Witch Hazel Cream Contest but she will certainly have added a considerable number of customers to her total list. Try it and see!

Many a great campaign has been lost for lack of ammunition. The Secretaries' ammunition for spring sales is first and foremost the Larkin Catalog. Along with it she has as sure-fire weapons for securing business, the Larkin Wall Paper Book and the Paint Color Card. The inside front cover of The Larkin Idea and the facing page remind our Secretaries of the two first-mentioned means, while within a brief period the Paint Color Card will be placed in the hands of every Secretary.

While this reminder is before you, why not take the order blank which accompanies this issue of The Larkin Idea and mark in it just the number of new catalogs and wall paper books you can profitably use. Then use this order blank for your very next order. Remember that we wish to supply you just as many books as you can place to real advantage, knowing that the Larkin Catalog and Wall Paper Book are in themselves the very best partners you can have for increased business.

There has been a great deal of satisfaction with the new offer for extra Clubs. So many Secretaries secured for themselves the Sandwich Tray during the six months just past. What a happy thought that a companion piece has been chosen for the spring offer, a lovely salad or fruit bowl. Of course, the thing that is almost beyond comprehension is the possibility of securing a genuine piece of cut-glass in the shapely design and lovely American Beauty rose pattern for such a small sum as 39c. Yet, that is the opportunity which awaits any Secretary who will start forth among her friends and enroll them in an extra Larkin Club this spring.

We almost forgot to mention the Larkin Idea Special of the month....the Ironing Board Pad with Cover. These monthly Specials have been hailed with delight by Larkin Secretaries and their Club members. Now that Rewards are regularly paid on these specials, they come under the head of sales that count in the "On-to-Washington" contest. There are many Secretaries who will remember to mention The Larkin Idea Special as they go around among their friends, in gathering up orders in this great contest, Take Your Friends in Your Club at Once!

Oftentimes after a Club has been started either friends of your own or those of your Club members come to you with the request to join your Club. The businesslike Secretary is always prepared to serve these friends who wish to be Larkin Club members immediately, even though she has not a regular place for them in her Club. In view of the fact that The Larkin Idea is constantly going to new Club Secretaries who perhaps do not realize how easy it is to do this, we want to tell you just how. These newcomers may have without delay the advantage of Larkin Dealing.

How to Include the Orders of Others Besides Members

When these friends ask for admission to your Club, say to them:

"How glad I will be to serve you without even waiting for the renewal of my Club. If you wish to take a dollar share in my Club just choose a dollar's worth of Larkin Products at catalog prices and I will send your order in with that of the regular Club. I'll request of Larkin Co one dollar's worth of Larkin Coupons which I will give to you along with your Products. By the time the Club series is completed you will have received, if you give me an order for a dollar's worth of Products each time, just as many dollars in coupons as there are orders in the Club." (If five orders remain, your friend will receive five dollars in coupons. If six, six dollars in coupons, etc.)

At Reorganization Time

At reorganization time you can then take these extra Club members into your Club as regular members either by expanding the Club into two Clubs or a Club of larger size, or by letting them replace any members who might wish to drop out. Incidentally, the Secretary who has a few extra members purchasing Products in this way, when she reaches the end of the Club series, always has ample Club members to carry on a Club at its renewal.

Of course, these friends you serve by extra purchases after the Club is started may turn in the coupons they receive for Premiums with any order of that Club series, or they may save them to add to their Premium value when the Club reorganizes.

"What Larkin Dealing Has Meant to Me"

by

Mrs. George A. Moore

Wilmington, N. C.

I have a few expressions of sincere appreciation to pass on to you. I have been dealing with Larkin Co for about twenty years and have never been disappointed with anything received from you.

Larkin has meant more to me and my home than any other dealer. To begin, all of my rooms and my porch are lighted with Larkin electrical fixtures. I have never seen any fixtures I like better than mine.

In my living-room the rug, library table, lamp, music cabinet, smoking cabinet, arm chair and many other little things came from Larkin Co. In every room in my home are Larkin Premiums, which add much beauty and comfort.

For ten years my family has used a set of Larkin Silver three times a day, yet not one piece has tarnished. For the past six years my children have been sleeping on a Larkin iron bed and it is still in perfect condition; the enamel hasn't cracked a bit.

Too, I must tell you that through Larkin Co last Christmas my children were made happier and their tree far prettier than ever before. I have been saving all of my coupons for some time so that you may make my Christmas a very enjoyable one. Larkin Co has made it possible for me to obtain some things that I have always wanted but could not afford until Larkin made it easy. Among these things is a real diamond ring, which I earned through Larkin dealing. I wish I could tell everybody just how much Larkin has meant to me and mine.

"How I Sold Christmas Cards"

by

Miss Vanna Kelley, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Editor's Note: Contestants in the monthly sales contests in connection with the "On-to-Washington" Contest will be interested in Miss Kelley's letter below. What she has done with Christmas Cards other Secretaries should be able to do with such a staple item as Larkin Witch Hazel Cream.

Miss Kelley writes: "I have sold more Christmas Cards this year than ever before. My method of selling so many cards was to order the four different kinds and use them as my samples. You need not coax any one to buy when they once see the cards; they speak for themselves. The demand for Larkin Christmas Cards increases every year.

"Women who had never bought a Larkin order said that the cards were wonderful value for the money and had seen none better for the price. One new customer this year said she certainly wants to get her Cards from me next year.

"Having known nothing about the Christmas Card Selling Contest which was to be conducted during November, I sent in large orders during October. In spite of that, when the Christmas Card Selling Contest was announced in The Larkin Idea for the month of November I was able to gather even further orders. Yet I was indeed surprised when I received the $5 in Larkin Coupons, having stood fifth in this contest."
